

Afro-American Historical & Genealogical Society
New England Chapter, Inc.

Our goal is to bring people together to promote genealogical research of Afro-American heritage on all levels – from beginner to professional.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2024

Welcome to the AAHGS-NE 2024 – 2025 calendar year. Our October meeting is a field trip. Please join us at the Claypit Cemetery located at 647 Pawtucket Blvd., Lowell, Massachusetts, 01854. [The cemetery is next to the Market Basket and Marshalls parking.]

OCTOBER MEETING

Featured Presentation:
Claypit Cemetery: The Resting Place of an African American Revolutionary War Patriot
Barzillai Lew

Featured Presenter
Rebecca Duda

Meeting Time:
2:00 p.m.

This chapter was established under the parent organization:
Afro-American Historical and Genealogical Society Inc., Washington, DC.
For more information, go to www.aahgs-ne.org or email the Chapter President at newengland@aahgs.org
Established in 1997, AAHGS-NE Chapter, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) organization.